

Rosetta Thurman is an author, speaker and transformational life and business coach who helps women entrepreneurs create the lives and businesses of their dreams.

With more than 20 years of experience in leadership development, organizational management, and business consulting, Rosetta brings a rare blend of purpose and expertise to her work, inspiring women around the world to stop settling and start building lives and businesses they absolutely love.

Rosetta began her career in the nonprofit sector before making a bold pivot and launching her own coaching business and women's empowerment brand. Today, she has spoken at more than 200 events and inspired thousands of women to create their vision, transform their mindset, and achieve their big goals faster than they ever thought possible.

A sought-after speaker and trusted mentor, Rosetta is the founder of Happy Black Woman®, host of The Happy Black Woman® Podcast (with over 1 million downloads), and the author of Launch Your Business. Her insight has been featured in SUCCESS Magazine, Entrepreneur, Essence and Black Enterprise. She holds a Master's Degree in Organizational Management and has taught leadership, business, and marketing as an Adjunct Professor.

Her motto is simple, yet empowering: "You can do anything you want with your life, and no one can stop you...but you!"
